

Child Protection Awareness in Sport and Active Leisure

About the Programme

This EduCare programme is written by the NSPCC for anyone who comes into contact with children, young people and their parents or carers through their work or volunteer activity in a sports or active leisure setting. It provides an excellent introduction to safeguarding children and young people and will help you to recognise the early warning signs of possible abuse and provides guidance on what can be done to prevent children and young people suffering from abuse.

Programme make-up

- Modular, bite-size format provides an easy way to learn the essentials.
- There are four concise learning modules, four accompanying questionnaires and full instructions throughout.
- A personalised NSPCC certificate on successful completion provides evidence of learning.
- There is confirmation of the correct answers to reinforce the participant's knowledge.
- Available in paper-based and online learning methods.

Programme benefits

- Brings paid and volunteer staff quickly up-to-speed.
- People with different working arrangements and in different locations receive the same clear, consistent messages.
- The programme can be used as a pre-employment, induction or refresher tool.
- The reassurance of knowing that the content has been written and approved by experts at the NSPCC.

Programme Contents

Module one – Understanding the Basics

Learn about the different types of child abuse: physical, sexual, emotional and neglect. Understand how abuse can affect a child and eliminate misunderstandings by learning about some of the common myths and facts about child abuse.

Module two – Recognising Child Abuse

Recognise the possible physical and behavioural signs of abuse; know how to respond if a child confides in you and what you should do if you suspect a child is being maltreated.

Module three – Reporting Child Abuse

Understand the importance of taking action to prevent child abuse from occurring and know when and when not, to share your concerns with parents. Follow the step-by-step action plan to report any concerns you may have about a child and understand the processes that takes place once you have reported your concerns.

Module four – Good Practice Issues

Learn how to protect yourself from false allegations by following a code of conduct; develop principles for good practice; implement new policies and procedures in your organisation and look for signs of those who may pose a threat to children when recruiting new staff.

Why Choose EduCare?

“Our practitioners have undertaken approximately 2000 courses and we have found them to be very high quality. Our relationship with EduCare has been very beneficial and we have found them to be professional, helpful and able to adapt well to our systems. I would willingly recommend them. They have successfully filled the gap for alternative methods of delivery.”

Tammie Redman, Milton Keynes Council, Early Years and Childcare Team

“The assimilation of knowledge is measured by the questionnaires that accompany each module and we like the fact that they are marked independently.”

Skill Force

As an organisation, we get a lot of after-care support from the EduCare team who are always there if you need them.

Connexions

“I like the fact that it's a quite rigorous training process. It's not something we just rubber-stamp; you actually have to put some work into the programme which means you learn something at the end of the day.”

Royal Society for the Protection of Birds

“A huge advantage of EduCare is the flexibility it offers. People can do them when and where they want; the night shift seems quite a popular time to study! Some managers of our residential homes use them as team-building exercises and work together as a group to complete the programme. We have had good feedback from our people. Even when they have been completed, the subjects are still discussed and the advice and information contained within them are put into practice. I would definitely recommend EduCare to other organisations.”

Liz Bennett, Accreditation & Assessment Senior Administrator, Mencap

“In short the EduCare methodology is cost effective, accessible, simple, measurable and most importantly, effective. The programme supports our organisation's health and safety culture and understanding. West Midlands Fire Service is committed to high standards of health and safety and would recommend the programme to other fire services to use within their service to support these standards.”

Mark Bishop, Safety, Health and Environment Adviser, West Midlands Fire Service

“People can do it at their own convenience. Everyone likes the certificate which evidences the learning and looks very professional. There are lots of them pinned up on our notice boards around the office. We have just had our independent Child Protection Audit to ensure we comply with all available legislation and best practice and the training was cited in the auditor's report.”
